They're Us by Goldenbrook15 reviews When the Young Justice land themselves in another dimension by accident and then manage to escape the entire Justice League who strangely don't know them at all and flee into the world outside, Batman can only come to one conclusion, "They're us, from a different world. Many of the black characters, for starters, are played by white actors, all having a grand time making randy savages out of their roles. While some were really great products, some of them were also quite questionable. The war was a major economic catastrophe as Britain went from being the world's largest overseas investor to being its biggest debtor, with interest payments consuming around 40 percent of the national budget.
